LEADING WOMEN EXPRESS NETWORK NAMES 2011 TOP TEN CANDIDATE

(Bryan, Texas) The Leading Women Express Network of Bryan/College Station, a chapter of the American Business Women's Association has named Geanna Kincanon its 2011 Express Network Top Ten Candidate.

Kincanon graduated from Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and a minor in Psychology. She has been building her career, most recently at West Corporation as the Director of Human Resources. A team member at West since 2006, Kincanon has been responsible for major corporate accounts such as American Express, T-Mobile and Dish Network.

Kincanon balances her career with family; she is the mother of four; Brandon, Brittany, Brooke, and Brayden and is a grandmother to her precious granddaughter, Nevaeh. Kincanon enjoys living in the Bryan-College Station area and is actively involved in the community volunteering in many organizations including the Bryan-College Station Chamber of Commerce. Acting as a dual member of ABWA's Leading Women Express Network and the Bryan-College Station Charter Chapter, Kincanon is passionate about helping others grow both personally and professionally. Kincanon currently serves as the Vice President of Education & Resources for the Leading Women Express Network.

"Receiving this award is such an amazing honor. The women that I am privileged to call my friends have encouraged me to strive, to grow both personally and professionally and to become all that I can," said Kincanon. "I am very proud to represent the Leading Women Express Network as the Top Ten Candidate for 2011 and it is my hope that each of you will seize the opportunity to get involved at every level of this amazing organization. The American Business Women's Association has truly changed my life!"

Nominees for the awards were submitted to a three member committee made up of Leading Women Express Network members: Kathy Norwood, Donna Patterson, and Debbie Waskow and were then submitted to an outside panel for final selection. The chosen candidate then competes on a National level with other candidates from all over the country.

The American Business Women's Association's mission is to bring together business women of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support, and national recognition.
